Correspondence by Supervisor Bruning:

- Notice from the Ulster county Dept. of Social Services the Towns share for Safety Net has been increased to 71% local share with New York State paying 29% an increase of 21% from a 50% share. Further stating that the Towns Retirement contribution has increased by 50%, New York State Aid has decreased by 2% and the Governor wants to implement a 2% cap.
- NYMIR notice stating a return of the entire Initial Capital Investment paid when joining the insurance company.
- A letter from the New York State Town Clerk's Association informing the Supervisor of Town Clerk Joy-Ann Monforte award of Registered Municipal Clerk.
- FEMA flood mapping invitation at the Olive Free Library on June 16th from 1 to 4 pm.
- A letter proposing a garden at the Town Hall from Steve Ellis Chairmen of the Denning Garden Community Club. Included was a preliminary plot drawing of a sculpture, pathways and flower arrangement.
- Supervisor Bruning comments that at first glance he has snow-plowing concerns behind the handicap parking sign.
- Resident Mary Buchen inquires as to salting of the roads, commenting that also needs to be taken into consideration.
- Supervisor Bruning asks if the club is working with Karen Rauter the Stream Program Coordinator.
- Resident John Kuhner replies yes, her area is from the stream to the bank and ours is the bank to the road.
- Supervisor Bruning he would rather have Steve Ellis submit a budget proposal and they would then have a place to start a discussion regarding cost.
- Resident Ed Mues remarks that one of the ideas is to have large stone as a table and seating, there are some ideal rocks at the Ulster County Highway Garage. Highway Superintendent Van Sadlers will take a look.
- Councilman David Brooks asks if maintenance is voluntary? Mary Buchen responds yes.

Highway Report by Superintendent Dan Van Sadlers

- Graded roads in Sundown: Cross, Whitehouse, Brooks Hill and Balace.
- Cleaned ditches on Dymond Road.
- Patch work done on Denning Road and replaced a culvert above Saito.
- Repair from minor shoulder erosion on Sugarloaf and Red Hill.
- 2002 Intl had brakes canisters on rear end replaced.
- A dozen trees go down from windstorm on May 28th.
- Last few storms have dumped large quantities of water causing numerous shoulder erosion.
- The historic signs are being placed around Town, brief discussion on the direction they should face and a spelling error.

Code Enforcement – Supervisor Bruning

- The Code Enforcement Officer has written a notice of violation of the building code due to an occupancy change. Zoning permits a B&B however there are certain building codes which must be followed; such as emergency exits.

Supervisor Comments:

- ❖ A letter from an attorney regarding an abandoned Town road at the end of Taylor, has been submitted to the Attorney for the Town Rod Futerfas who has reviewed and informed them that everything was done legally and properly. The parcel in question has two deeded accesses off of Frost Valley Road.
- ❖ There are 35 roads that have to be abandoned, some have been done.
- ❖ Dave Van Valkenburg has finished taking pictures to update the Towns property index files.
- ❖ The zoning map updates have been sent to Fountain Spatial.

Board Comments:

- Councilman Dave Brooks brings up the labeling of Sundown Road to the intersection; Supervisor Bruning responds it was corrected.
- Brief discussion opened on SEQR type 1.

Public comments:

- Resident Jim Brady asks if anyone in the Town has sold a conservation easement?
- Response by Councilman Dave Brooks yes on Whitehouse Road, some time back.
- Resident Jim Brady asks if anyone on the Town Board has sold land to New York City?

- Supervisor Bruning responds I have in the Town of Neversink.
- Resident Jim Brady wants to know who paid the closing costs? Supervisor Bruning responds they must have because I didn't.
- Resident Jim Brady states the Town is telling him what he can do with his very valuable property and keeping him from making pockets full of money.
- Supervisor Bruning asks why would you want to make the land worthless.
- Resident Jim Brady responds he doesn't have any kids and he doesn't care. He can sit on his porch and look across the road.
- Resident Jim Brady states the fence on his property is a mess and a hazard. Remarking he wrote to the Board about it in 2002 when Bob McConnell was Superintendent.
- Front of the little house is a mess and he is missing 8 feet of his property due to the Town placing rip rap by the lilacs.
- Resident Jim Brady shows pictures of an area where the snowplow has pushed the edge of the grass up along the shoulder.
- Discussion opened on water running down the hill behind Recycling Center, firehouse and down Denning Road.
- Resident Jim Brady wants the apron placed on his property removed, stating it was placed there to keep Eleanor from flooding.
- Superintendent Vans Saders states we put a 6 " culvert in and then removed per your request.
- Resident Jim Brady responds because it wasn't big enough.
- Resident Jim Brady complains that he cannot cut his grass with his tracker by the lilacs.
- Supervisor Bruning asks him what is the remedy?
- Resident Jim Brady firmly states there isn't any.
- Resident Jim Brady demands his property is repaired and the fence fixed. Stating if his wife gets hit with something, the Town will be hearing from someone else.
- Resident Ed Mues inquires as to the status of the shed for E-waste from Eco- Int'l.
- Supervisor Bruning responds he has received the email and the container needs to fit the area. He will copy Ed on the email.
- Resident Pixie Piera informs the Board that the sign for Sundown/Greenville and Peekamoose Roads is leaning against the Sundown Church and is very confusing to people, she asks that it be corrected.
- Supervisor Bruning responds he will call the County.
- Resident Jim Brady wants the apron out.

Motion to adjourn at 8:26 p.m. by Councilman Paul Schoonmaker, 2nd by Councilman Kevin Smith, All in favor. Vote carried 4 to 0.

Respectfully Submitted by Joy Ann Monforte, Town Clerk
